SAILING INSTRUCTOR

ABOUT US...

The North Hatley Club (NHC) is a private summer club located on the shores of Lake Massawippi in North Hatley, Quebec. Founded in 1897, it is a cosmopolitan community of people, its members hailing from Quebec, the rest of Canada, the US, and several other countries. Members are actively involved as volunteers, supporting the NHC community with family oriented, multi-generational activities and social events. The Club operates primarily during the summer months; late June to late August, although there are occasionally member events at other times. Its main activities include sailing, tennis, social activities, and it offers a very popular junior program.
