

LUNENBURG YACHT CLUB JUNIOR SAILING COACHES

The Lunenburg Yacht Club is hiring coaches for the 2023 season which operates from the end of June to the end of August. LYC's Junior Sailing Program is an exceptional program for all levels of participants. LYC is located on beautiful Mahone Bay and provides a perfect location in which to run a Junior Sailing Program.

LYC has a long history of providing high caliber racing to its members including its junior sailors. LYC has hosted the World Youth Sailing Championships and several Canadian National Championships. LYC is a sailing and racing club first and foremost!

LYC is looking for coaches to work with all levels of its junior sailing program. Candidates need to be enthusiastic, fun, resourceful and hard-working. They need to be engaging with their students and place their experience as most important. They need to be able to work well with others and to contribute to all aspects of the program's success. They need to take pride in their work and be the type of people that don't have to be asked to do something and want to make sure everything is done very well.

Competitive wages will be paid commensurate with experience and certification. We are also accepting applications from Indigenous Persons and Newcomers to Canada.
